Book 3 of 7 1982 - 1983

Alison Hunter retired as head of music at Morrison's Academy in 1995 having taught there for 20 years. Originally from Caithness she attended the Royal Scottish Academy of Music in Glasgow then trained as a teacher at Jordanhill College.

She sang regularly on TV in the days of the White Heather Club, but even when teaching at Morrison's she kept her media links with pupils being involved in Songs of Praise and a variety of other broadcasts.

Alison's years at Morrison's were 'instrumental' in a remarkable growth in musical activity. During this period she gathered a collection of programmes, photographs, newspaper cuttings and other musical memorabilia which she kept in a series of scrap books.

These form an interesting record of pupils' participation in a wide range of musical activities. Her dedication and commitment to the school and pupils is reflected in the many cards and letters of appreciation.

In scanning these books we tried to keep the appearance of the pages as close as possible to the original 'scrap book' format, including the traditional page colouring. Some multi-page items, such as programmes, have been opened out so that the contents can be seen - otherwise only the front page would be visible on the scan.

THE ARTS

Place with a soul is going for a song

By JOHN FOWLER

Who else but Sir Christopher Wren?

His three companions turn out to be Sir Joshua Reynolds, Henry Purcell and John Flaxman, a sculptor better thought of in the nineteenth century than today. As with others of its kind, the Athenaeum was built (in 1888) to provide educational and cultural opportunities for the citizens. It included a reading room, a library and numerous class and lecture rooms.

When more space was needed the trustees wanted to buy the corner site, then occupied by tenements and lodging houses, but the owners of these properties were reluctant, preferring in the end to sell to the fleshpots of the ascendant Liberal Party. A red sandstone edifice was constructed there in 1907 as the Glasgow Liberal Club (auspiciously, since the Prime Minister of the day was Kelvinhaugh's own Henry Campbell-Bannerman). This explains the monogram GLC, now associated with quite another defunct institution, to be found carved on convenient chair backs, oaken panels and marble fireplaces.

The oldest of the three buildings, the original Athenaeum, confronts what is now Nelson Mandela Place, St George's Tron Church and the Stock Exchange. Its simple classical facade is breached by three large arched windows set between plain ionic pillars, on top of which stand four sculpted figures.

But of whom? Nobody seemed to know when I asked. I found the answer in an old book.

One worthy is easily recognised, since he carries a model of the dome of St Paul's in one hand, a remarkable lift shaft, no longer in working order, complete with art nouveau metal grille. But the gem of the place is the theatre, to which you have to descend from ground level.

Here there is a raffish charm of times gone by, no bad thing for any place of entertainment. At present it lacks the necessary exits to please the fire authorities, but with a bit of ingenuity this could be rectified so that it could once again be opened to the public.

When it was new, such considerations were not deemed important. In those days it could seat 1000 people, double the number of a full house today. Despite the crush all seats were claimed to have a good view of the stage, "always excepting the contingency of a lady's bonnet on front of you."

Among the more dramatic events in the building's history was the episode of the runaway cow of 1907 (an interesting reminder of the rural world still clinging to our cities less than a century ago). The animal bolted up the steps to the reception desk where it stood snorting, belaboured by walking sticks and umbrellas, until such time as Mr Horton (the gummaker) was summoned. He shot it dead on the spot, a bloody business.

It was, from earliest days, a temple to the thespian arts. Henry GLC contains, among other things, the general public

FOR SALE notices are up on the cluster of three handsome buildings in the centre of Glasgow which house the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama. The RSAMD expect to be out of their old home and into the new — opposite the Theatre Royal at the top of Hope Street — for the start of the autumn term. They hope, quietly, that the new owner or owners (for the buildings will be sold separately) will be sympathetic to the vibes the houses have built into the place over nearly a century.

They trust, above all, that whoever occupies the tall, thin building entered from Buchanan Street will maintain the theatre housed in its foundations, an auditorium which is peculiarly sensitive (what Glasgow theatre is not?) to the seismic tremors of Underground trains.

The old place is going for a song: a mere £1.5m or so for a complex which the selling agents describe as "classical . . . magnificent . . . unique . . . occupying a pre-eminent south-facing corner site at the hub of Glasgow's business and financial sector, a key city-centre location within walking distance of the city's premier entertainment, hotel and restaurant facilities."

The oldest of the three buildings, the original Athenaeum, confronts what is now Nelson Mandela Place, St George's Tron Church and the Stock Exchange. Its simple classical facade is breached by three large arched windows set between plain ionic pillars, on top of which stand four sculpted figures.

But of whom? Nobody seemed to know when I asked. I found the answer in an old book.

One worthy is easily recognised, since he carries a model of the dome of St Paul's in one hand, of the RSAMD's more public functions, the popular (and free) Friday midday concerts in Stevenson Hall.

This elegant salon (decor in Edwardian rococo) is marred only by its curious colour scheme of grey and primrose and the appalling 1950s light fittings which were unfortunately substituted for the originals. It was here that Liberal clubmen dined until their party's fortunes declined in the 1920s and the place was sold.

Mozart's bust, which occupies a niche at one end of the hall, is not original. His predecessor was probably Gladstone.

At the other end of the hall is a typically dark Highland landscape by Horatio McCulloch. That, too, like the Mozart, is not included in the sale.

Since the Athenaeum couldn't extend at the corner, a clever architectural left hook linked it with the Buchanan Street site where a tall, upward-striving building (also designed by noted architect J. J. Burnet) was erected. Not unlike the early Chicago skyscrapers, it is the only one of the three to be listed Category A in the bureaucrats' league table of architectural merit.

Later highlights included the visits of the peripatetic Scottish National Players under their director Tyrone Guthrie between the wars. It was the preferred home of Glasgow Unity Theatre at the start of the Second World War and the first home of the

The Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama's premises in Glasgow which have a price tag of £1.5m.

Citizens' Theatre towards the war's end.

But most popular of all has been the pantomime staged for the past 30 years by students at the school of drama. Some 150,000 children have seen the shows, probably the most enthusiastic audiences the Athenaeum Theatre has seen and certainly the noisiest.

Whoever buys (or buys) the RSAMD will get some 40 rooms, a clutch of halls, a theatre, a TV studio, a warren of subterranean nooks and crannies and (for free) the sound of not only the Underground but the Queen Street Low Level Trains.

It seems a snip. And there is a hidden extra, according to Russell Boyce, deputy head of the school of drama. "This place," he says, "has a soul."

Girls { Non Nobis Domine, We sing this every day,
The pain and suffering of endless fa me ray.

{ For in the music room we're locked for hours on end to open wide and sing Non Nobis Domine

Boys { and we poor lads are blamed for dropping octaves down that noise which we produce that all the girls doth drown

{ All this we undergo in honour of the Queen to get onto T.V.
to bring the school to fame.

{ O power by whom we live, O Rector small, but wise??

{ your brightly coloured socks we notice match your ties

{ But grant Mrs H to see through all our piteous wails that we all try our best and really want to please

Cadets on royal parade

THE first girls to be admitted to the Combined Cadet Force of Morrison's Academy, Crieff, were seen going through their paces yesterday by the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh.

The Queen and the Duke toured the grounds during a visit to the academy on its 125th anniversary.

Indoors, they attended a concert at which the senior school choir sang an anthem, and Mr Ron Gonella, a member of the staff, played a slow air on the fiddle composed by himself,

The Queen and the Duke planted trees to commemorate their visit to the academy.

Later at Perth they visited the factory of Caithness Glass and the headquarters of the General Accident Insurance Company which was celebrating its centenary.

At Caithness Glass, they saw paperweight making, finishing, and engraving.

The Queen will today open an exhibition in Edinburgh which traces the history of the Scottish Office over the past century.

The exhibition, The Thistle and the Crown, will show the various facets of the Scottish Office from 1885 and is being staged at Inverleith House in the Royal Botanic Gardens. It marks the centenary of the creation in Government of the post of Scottish Secretary.

Meanwhile, Princess Anne became so engrossed during her tour of RAF Kinloss yesterday that the visit ran more than 30 minutes behind schedule as she talked to personnel.

OUR GUEST PREACHER

Baroness Carnegie of Lour

MORRISON'S ACADEMY

Baroness Carnegie lives at Lour in Angus, where she is a senior partner in an arable farm of 1600 acres.

Educated at Downham in Essex, her war service was as a laboratory assistant with an atomic research team at the Cavendish Laboratory, Cambridge.

She has a lifetime's connection with the Guide Movement, having been involved particularly in the training of leaders, which took her not only all over Scotland and Great Britain, but also to the Bahamas, the West Indies and Zimbabwe. She is now President of the Council of the Association in Scotland.

Baroness Carnegie was for 15 years in Local Government, first as a co-opted member of Angus Education Committee, and then as a Councillor on Tayside Region. As Chairman of the Education Committee she had frequent contact with Morrison's.

She has served on many central and local government bodies, including the Manpower Services Commission. She is currently Chairman of the Scottish Community Education Council, a member of the Scottish Economic Council, of the Council of the Open University, and of the Administrative Council of the Royal Jubilee Trusts.

She was created a Life Peer in 1982, and works regularly in the House of Lords where she serves on the Select Committee on the European Communities and specialises in education, training, employment and local government affairs. She recently took a Private Member's Bill through the House; it is now on the Statute Book as the Local Government (Access to Information) 1985 Act.

SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING

Tuesday, 1 October, 1985

at 11 a.m.

in St. Michael's Church, Crieff.

The Service is being recorded for broadcast on Sunday, 6 October, at 9.10 a.m., Radio Scotland.

Welcome	Mr. N. Ovens (President of Club)
Ant. Psalm 150	Cesar Franck
O praise ye the Lord
Hymn 9	Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation; O my soul, praise him, for he is thy health and salvation; All ye who hear, sing a new song; let us now to his temple draw near, Joining in glad adoration.
	Praise to the Lord, who o'er all things so wondrously reigneth. Shieldeth thee gently from harm, or when fainting sustaineth;
	Hast thou not seen How heart's wishes have been Granted in what he ordaineth?
	Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy work and defend thee; Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend thee;
	Ponder anew What the Almighty can do, Who with his love doth befriend thee.
	Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore him! All hath life and breath, come now with praises before him!
	Let the Amen Sound from his people again: Gladly for aye we adore him.

Prayer	Thanksgiving and Dedication	Rector
Readings	A promise : Joshua 1. 1-9	Mrs. N. Ovens (President of Club)
	A call : Exodus 3. 1-12	Mr. T. Dunsire (Chairman of Governors)
	A response : Samuel 3. 1-10	Fergus Allan (Head Boy)
Hymn 501	Far round the world thy children sing their song; From East and West their voices sweetly blend, Praising the Lord in whom young lives are strong, Jesus our Guide, our Hero, and our friend.
	Where thy wide ocean, wave on rolling wave, Beats through the ages, on each no under sunlit island shore, They praise their Lord, whose hand alone can save, Whose sea of love surrounds them evermore.
	Still there are lands where none have seen thy face, Children whose hearts have never shared thy joy; Yet thou wouldst pour on these thy radiant grace, Give thy glad strength to every girl and boy.
	All round the world let children sing thy song: From East and West their voices sweetly blend, Praising the Lord in whom young lives are strong, Jesus our Guide, our Hero, and our friend.
Hymn 87	Be thou my Vision, O Lord of my heart; Naught be all else to me, save that thou art, Thou my best thought, by day or by night, Waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.
	Be thou my Wisdom, thou my true Word; I ever with thee, thou with me, Lord; Thou my great Father, I thy true son; Thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.
	Be thou my battle-shield, sword for the fight; Be though my dignity, thou my delight, Thou my soul's shelter, thou my high tower; Raise thou me heaven-ward, O Power of my power.
	Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise, Thou mine inheritance, now and always; Thou and thou only, first in my heart, High King of Heaven, my treasure thou art.
	High King of Heaven, after victory won, May I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
	Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, Still be my Vision, O Ruler of all.

Address

Baroness Carnegy of Lour

Hymn 368

Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices, -
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven, -
The one, eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.
Amen.

Benediction

NOTES FOR CHOIRS AND CONGREGATION

The BBC welcomes you to this recording of "Songs of Praise" and hopes very much that you will enjoy taking part. To make the programme as effective as possible, will you please:

1. Watch the Conductor. If you can't see her very well, take the lead from the choir or organ.
2. Stand and sit as quickly and quietly as you can.
3. Try to ignore the cameras!

O FOR A THOUSAND TONGUES

Tune: Lyngham

1. O for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise, (2)
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace! (3)
2. Jesus! The name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease; (2)
Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace. (3)
3. He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free; (2)
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me. (3)
4. He speaks, and, listening to His voice,
New life the dead receive, (2)
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe. (3)
5. Hear Him, ye deaf; His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ; (2)
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come;
And leap, ye lame, for joy. (3)
6. My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim, (2)
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honours of Thy name.(3)

HELP US ACCEPT EACH OTHER

reprinted by kind permission of Oxford University Press on behalf of the World Council of Churches.

1. Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us;
teach us as sister, brother,
each person to embrace.
Be present, Lord among us and bring us to believe we are ourselves accepted and meant to love and live.

Help us accept each other as Christ accepted us;
Sœur, apprends-nous l'accueil des autres, tel qu'ils sont;
Einander annehmen, auf uns zu nehmenden, wie Du es hast ge-tan;

2. Teach us, O Lord, your lessons, as in our daily life
we struggle to be human and search for hope and faith.
Teach us to care for people,
for all--not just for some,
to love them as we find them or as they may become.

Ten-ter as sis-ter, bro-ther, each per-son to brace, fran-ter nel à chaque han-main, Christ nous den-na-le-çon.

3. Let your acceptance change us, so that we may be moved in living situations
to do the truth in love;
to practise your acceptance
until we know by heart
the table of forgiveness and laughter's healing art.

Be pre-sent, Lord a-mong us and bring us to believe
Vi-vant au lieu de nous, con-duis-nous à sa voir
Herr, sei ge-gen - wär-tig und leg, uns stan-dig nah:

4. Lord, for today's encounters with all who are in need,
who hunger for acceptance,
for righteousness and bread,
we need new eyes for seeing,
new hands for holding on:
renew us with your spirit;
Lord, free us, make us one!

We are our-selves ac-cord-ter chaque hon-me to love and live.

'TIS WINTER NOW
Tune: O Waly Waly

Snow

1. 'Tis winter now; the fallen snow
Has left the heavens all coldly clear;
Through leafless boughs the sharp winds blow,
And all the earth lies dead and drear.
2. And yet God's love is not withdrawn;
His life within the keen air breathes;
His beauty paints the crimson dawn,
And clothes the boughs with glittering wreaths.
3. And though abroad the sharp winds blow,
And skies are chill, and frosts are keen,
Home closer draws her circle now,
And warmer glows her light within.
4. O God! who giv'st the winter's cold,
As well as summer's joyous rays,
Us warmly in thy love enfold,
And keep us through life's wintry days.

BEHOLD THE AMAZING GIFT OF LOVE
Tune: St. Stephen (Newington)

1. Behold the amazing gift of love
The Father hast bestowed
On us, the sinful sons of men,
To call us sons of God!
2. Concealed as yet this honour lies,
By this dark world unknown, —
A world that knew not when he came,
Even God's eternal Son.
3. High is the rank we now possess;
But higher we shall rise,
Though what we shall hereafter be
Is hid from mortal eyes.
4. Our souls, we know, when he appears,
Shall bear his image bright;
For all his glory, full disclosed,
Shall open to our sight.
5. A hope so great, and so divine,
May trials well endure;
And purge the soul from sense and sin,
As Christ himself is pure.

OH LORD, MY GOD, WHEN I IN AWESOME WONDER
 reprinted by kind permission of Mayhew-McCrimmon Ltd.

1. Oh Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder,
 consider all the worlds thy hand has made,
 I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
 thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus

Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
 How great thou art, how great thou art.
 Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to thee:
 How great thou art, how great thou art.

2. And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in that on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
 he bled and died to take away my sin.
3. When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart;
 when I shall bow in humble adoration,
 and there proclaim; my God, how great thou art.

O LOVE THAT WILT NOT LET ME GO
Tune: St. Margaret

S^oR^DON.

Pi^cm

1. O Love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee:
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.
2. O Light that followest all my way,
I yield my flickering torch to thee:
My heart restores its borrowed ray,
That in thy sunshine's blaze its day
May brighter, fairer be.
3. O Joy that seekest me through pain,
I cannot close me heart to thee:
I trace the rainbow through the rain,
And feel the promise is not vain,
That morn shall tearless be.
4. O Cross that liftest up my head,
I dare not ask to fly from thee:
I lay in dust life's glory dead,
And from the ground there blossoms red
Life that shall endless be.

NOW THANK WE ALL OUR GOD
Tune: Nun Danket

The musical notation consists of two staves. The top staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. It features a variety of note heads, including solid black dots, open circles, and diagonal slashes, along with rests. The bottom staff begins with a bass clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. It also uses similar note heads and rests as the top staff.

Snow!

1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices,-
Who, from our mothers' arms,
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever-joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from allills
In this world and the next.
3. All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven,-
The one, eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

COMMENT ON 1985 FINANCE BY MR. RAFFAN

Another year has passed during which I am pleased to record that St. Michael's met all commitments locally and to Mission and Service.

Two main factors enabled us to do this. First, the Christian Giving Campaign held early in the year and carried out by a team of volunteer visitors, resulted in a creditable increase in our offerings. The result at the end of the year was an increase of almost £3000 in our total offerings, mainly from a 17% increase in W.F.O. and, more significantly, in our Deeds of Covenant. Proof again, if any is now required, of the importance of this method of Church Income. In our Congregation more than half our Offerings Income is provided by 165 Deeds and I make no apology for once again repeating, that for every £1 granted by Deed, a further 43p can be realised from Income Tax recovered by the Church.

I know there are still many members who are uncertain whether they should grant a Deed or not. To them, I would simply say: if you are paying Income Tax you could grant a Deed of Covenant for your present offering without increasing your financial outlay. Deeds cover 4 years only and can be made transferable to any congregation of the Church of Scotland, if there is any possibility of the member moving from Crieff. The ideal situation would be, that our Offerings should be adequate to cover all our outgoings and we would no longer have to rely on Bazaars, legacies or donations from Organisations.

Why not make this 'THE YEAR OF THE DEED' and set a target of 200 at least: a good welcome for our new minister, to let him see that St. Michael's is in good heart financially. To this end John Imlah and I are always happy to discuss Deeds and W.F.O. at any time in complete confidence, so please phone 2465 or 4319 without further delay.

The second factor which enabled us to meet our commitments was that we received a generous donation of £620 from our Woman's Guild along with £25 from the Quest and various donations from others, some anonymous amounting to £847. Several legacies totalling £3379 were received along with one for around £11,100 which was applied to the Fabric Fund. This Fund also received £185 from the Flower Guild.

The picture would have been very different if it had not been for the benevolence of members no longer with us, the generosity of our Church Organisations and our members who so willingly responded to the Christian Giving Plan.

luous participation, with the true aims of worship emphasised, can be a great help. We think we have the balance right and many people have agreed. The recent participation by the Ogilvie girls was an example of a valuable and worshipful contribution, each girl striving to bring her best. We praised them for it, not as a concert performance, but a meaningful aid to worship.

SONGS OF PRAISE - JANUARY* 26 1986

We have received several appreciative letters about the T.V. recording of "Songs of Praise" from St.Michael's. Here are a few quotes:

"I'm writing to say how much I enjoyed the 'Songs of Praise'. It was truly one of the best I've heard on Sunday evenings. The hymns were very lively and sung beautifully. There was nothing I could find fault with. I also liked, or rather admired, three long stained-glass windows which I thought were unusual.

My husband and self spent an enjoyable holiday in Crieff some years ago.

We were both stationed in Scotland during the war, I in Alexandria and my husband in Helensburgh. As a result of the Scots wonderful kindness and hospitality during that time we have a very soft spot for your beautiful country. It is our favourite holiday spot and we visit it every three or four years.

Again, congratulations on a wonderfully enjoyable programme."

Mrs.N.Smith, Stoke Bishop, Bristol.

"I am writing to say how much I enjoyed the hymns and singing from your Parish Church last Sunday evening on the 'Songs of Praise' programme on television.

I am organist at my small village parish church and have, for a long time, been trying to find the words and music to the hymn "O Lord, my God" (How great Thou art). I should be extremely grateful if you could tell me details where it can be found."

Miss Jennifer Morris, Melton Mowbray.

(We sent on details of the hymn books where these words and music may be found.)

"I thought the singing was superb and such generous treatment was given to Charles Wesley's great hymn, so seldom sung in full and rarely to the magnificent tune Lyngham. I write to thank you heartily. It did me a power of good.

Wishing you all the best."

H.J.Dickman, Haverford West, Pembs.

(The hymn mentioned is "O for a thousand tongues to sing....")

"We listened to your 'Songs of Praise' on January 26 and thoroughly enjoyed it. I thought you might like to see your 'Write-up' in Shrewsbury Chronicle by Russell Mumford. We agree with what he says.

We visit Scotland each year for our holidays and love your people and the beautiful scenery, but I must take this opportunity of saying I also enjoyed the Rugby yesterday, when my home side just managed to keep ahead! God bless."

Mrs.R.Fox, Shrewsbury.

(The Rugby Match mentioned was Scotland v. England at Murrayfield, February 1st)

Extract from Shrewsbury Chronicle

I spent half-an-hour on Sunday evening watching Songs of Praise. It came from the small Scottish town of Crieff, in the broad valley of the River Earn in Perthshire.

Everyone sang a good selection of hymns with the customary gusto the presence of the television cameras seems to encourage.

What struck me was the smartness of the children. Of course, for many years Scotland has had a good reputation on the education front. And I have long had the feeling that they have the edge on England in discipline, too.

In Songs of Praise there were these young Scots - girls and boys from primary and secondary school level - with shirts, ties and blazers, well scrubbed and looking a credit to their schools and their parents.

I contrasted their appearance with the sloppy dressing allowed in some of our schools. Casual dress is OK - but some of the way-out gear I see going in and out of our schools surely goes too far down the casual road. In my view, smartly dressed kids have smart minds - and get the smarter jobs.

"I watched the programme 'Songs of Praise' from your Church on January 26 and enjoyed it very much. I wonder if you would be so kind as to send me the words of the hymn 'O Lord my God'.

I love this hymn but have never been able to find the words."

Mrs.M.Markham, Brierfield, Nr.Nelson, Lancs.

(Words sent on to Mrs.Markham)

"It was such a joy to see St.Michael's Church on the Television 'Songs of Praise' last Sunday evening. The very fine singing was very uplifting.

The Church looked beautiful and a credit to you all.

I was stationed with the 144th Field Ambulance just outside the town in 1942-43 as a young soldier and used to worship in the Church when able to go. It was also a great thrill to see the scenery that brought back memories to me.

I am and have been for 45 years, Sacristan and Crucifer of my own Parish Church here in Camborne dedicated to Saints Martin and Meriadoc Church of England formed in the year 671 A.D.

I do hope that one day before I die to be able to come once more to lovely Crieff, to sit and admire the beauty of that place and to say a prayer in that lovely House of God.

When travelling on my own from Cornwall to Crieff, via Edinburgh, on that little train and feeling so lonely, a dear little old Scottish lady spoke to me. She must have sensed the way I was feeling, invited me to tea and Church afterwards. She will have gone on to Glory.

Yours in His Service."

Mr.R.G.Hocking, 26 Union Street, Camborne,
Cornwall, TR14 8HG.

Mr.Hocking enclosed £5 "A little donation to use at your discretion" which has been passed on to our Church Treasurer.

A copy of this supplement will be sent on to these kind people.

BREVITIES

We were saddened to hear of the death of Win Brown's husband Bob who died, very suddenly on Saturday February 1st. Many of our members, and especially those who were associated with the Young Women's Group, will remember the Brown family who lived in Ferntower Road. We send our deepest sympathy to Win and to the three members of the family. A fourth child died a few years ago.

Great sorrow calls for great strength and safe keeping in the arms of our Lord who alone understands the way for each of us. Win will know that strength, and will be given great courage to face the days, weeks and years ahead, supported by her fine family.

Dr.Heavenor wrote to Win passing on our love, care and sympathy, but someone else may care to write a short note too, to
The Cove Castle, Cove, Dunbartonshire.

Win was a President of a very successful Young Women's Group and brought great enthusiasm and fine leadership to a lively and large membership.

Retirements

Mr. and Mrs.James Christie have left Crieff to take up work at St.John's Renfield Church in Glasgow. We wish them every success and blessing in their new sphere of service to God and His Church.

Margaret was a member of our Church Choir. We shall miss her fine voice but she has lost no time in joining the Choir of St.John's Renfield as she has already attended her first choir practice.

Dear Alison,

Now that I have returned to the office may I take the opportunity to thank you for the enormous amount of hard work you put into preparing the singing for our Songs of Praise. I am sure it was far beyond the call of duty.

I have looked at the cassette and on the whole am very pleased. Inevitably one always wants to do better, but there is a limit to how far you can push a congregation. They worked extremely hard and I trust that both you and the performers enjoy the final programme.

With every good wish.

6.40 Songs of Praise

from Crieff

Crieff is a small country town straddling the broad valley of the River Earn in Perthshire. It is a popular holiday centre, as Roger Royle discovers when he meets the managing director of the Crieff Hydro. The beauty of the landscape is reflected in the hymn 'We praise thee, Lord', written by a local musician, Ron Gonnella, for the primary school children. Roger joins the congregation in St Michael's Parish Church. O for a thousand tongues to sing (Lyngham); We praise thee, Lord (Strathearn); 'Tis winter now (O Waly Waly); O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder; Behold the amazing gift of love (Newington); Help us accept each other; O love that will not let me go (St Margaret); Now thank we all our God (Nun danket)

Dear Mrs Hunter

This is just a short note to say thank you very much indeed for all the hard work and skill that you put in to the rehearsals and the recording of the B.B.C. Songs of Praise.

Many thanks again.

BBC TV AND MORRISON'S

Sir — May I be allowed to correct the impression given in last week's edition of your newspaper that the forthcoming Songs of Praise is solely in connection with the 125th anniversary of Morrison's Academy.

It had been my intention to record a programme from Perthshire for some time; when it was suggested that Crieff would be an attractive venue and that the Academy would be pleased to participate, I was delighted to take up the offer.

The musical requirements of the programme are very high and it is my responsibility to see that standards are maintained. Mrs Hunter, Principal of Music at the Academy, has undertaken this task and is presently engaged in co-ordinating singers and musicians from the town.

Mr Philip Stuttard from the South Church will play the organ and Mr Ron Gonella has written a hymn specially for the occasion to be sung by children from four of the schools. Due to the indisposition of Dr Heavenor, the Rev. Peter Bisset of St. Ninian's will give the Benediction, while the Rector of the Academy will lead the prayers.

Songs of Praise is first and foremost an ecumenical community based programme which would be representative of the Christian community. I am sure Crieff will not prove the exception.

Yours etc.,

MICHAEL A. SIMPSON,

I am most grateful for your separate parts in last night's Carol Service. Though I had to rush away myself I have heard this morning nothing but good reports and I am grateful once again for your assistance.

I will need to have continuing discussions with Mrs. Hunter about this event since I have a very long letter on my desk today making certain points about our organisation and for the future we should remember that afternoon rehearsals on the Sunday do not create difficulties for us in the feeding of pupils.

Hymn for "Songs of Praise" - Crieff - November 1985

Words & Music by Ron Gonnella c 1985.

Tune - STRATHEARN arr. George Donkin.

- 1 We praise Thee, Lord, with vibrant strings,
For lochs and streams so near;
May their clear waters help us all
Thy gospel call to hear.
- 2 We praise Thee, Lord, with woodwind's reed,
For lonely hill and glen;
Where hour by hour, with Thee alone,
We can be whole again.
- 3 We praise Thee, Lord, with trumpet bold,
For work and play and zest;
We vow that here, both old and young,
For God, will do our best.
- 4 With music, then, we give Thee praise
Throughout this verdant land;
While down the years we strain and strive
Protected by Thy hand.

Dear Mrs Hunter,

I thought I would just drop you a line to say how very much my wife and I enjoyed being part of the "Songs of Praise" programme, broadcast at the end of January.

We were both very impressed with your conducting and the way you worked us in order to obtain such a fine performance. We have had many favourable comments from our families and friends who watched the programme. One comment has come from as far away as Bridport in Dorset. No doubt you, too, have had many favourable comments.

With best wishes and congratulations on obtaining such fine singing,

A highlight of the festival

By OUR MUSIC CRITIC May 86

Put on best suit and repaired to Battleby House, there to hear the wind musics, keyboards and recitations with little confidence that the experience should prove diverting.

So might a contemporary chronicler have phrased his nervousness about Sheba Sounds programme of mainly 18th century words and music last night.

Happily this entertainment, spoken and sung by Frank Windsor, was accompanied by two oboes, Catherine Smith and Sandra Mackay, bassoon Julie Andrews and harpsichord Ian Watson, turned out a delightful highlight of this year's Perth Festival of the Arts.

A great feeling for pace and timing is essential for a format which is usually seen as a fund-raiser's nice alternative to daffodil teas.

Mr Watson, whose exploration of the whimsical possibilities of the lute stop may have alienated the purists but delighted everyone else, revealed in a fine solo performance that J. C. Bach is a much under-rated composer.

Mr Windsor would surely have gained many new admirers for his virtuoso handling of a really splendid evening.

It was the turn of Crieff choirs to excel at yesterday's Perth Festival of the Arts lunchtime concert given by pupils of Morrison's Academy.

The performance began with a vocal display by 11 girls called the Madrigal Group of Gibbons' "The Silver Swan" and Morley's "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth."

The acts followed one another neatly and quickly throughout, which added to the display's impression of professionalism. After the opening performance, Thomas Buchanan played his trumpet solo, Shian Miller gave a controlled rendition of Mozart's "Larghetto" and Laura Hustwayte played a cello solo.

The girls' choir then took the platform with Armstrong's "Tis

MORRISON'S CHOIRS EXCEL

We are grateful for a report that has come to us (incidentally, not from the school) about how well Morrison's Academy choir performed at a lunch-time concert given during the Perth Festival of the Arts.

The performance began with a vocal display by 11 girls, called the Madrigal Group, of Gibbons' "The Silver Swan" and Morley's "My Bonnie Lass She Smileth." The acts followed one another neatly and quickly throughout, which added to the display's impression of professionalism.

After the opening performance, Thomas Buchanan played his trumpet solo, Shian Miller gave a controlled rendition of Mozart's "Larghetto" and Laura Hustwayte played a cello solo.

The girls' choir then took the platform with Armstrong's "Tis

THE SCHOOL'S HISTORY

Last July the 125th Anniversary celebrations at Morrison's Academy began with a Royal visit; last week they neared completion with a highly successful school revue. For three nights, Academy Hall held full and appreciative houses, and over the run more than 250 pupils and staff took the stage to the accompaniment of an eight-piece professional orchestra.

More than once the enterprise had seemed too ambitious, the rehearsal time too short, and yet the resolve expressed in one of the show's punch-lines, "There will be a revue," produced an entertainment worthy of the occasion.

Humour and music were interwoven throughout. In the early sketches, staffroom sages and playground pessimists were seen reluctantly adjusting to the notion of a revue.

The evening really took off with the sharply satirical song, "The Ashmall," and there was no faltering thereafter. In the "125" item, the senior pupils provided delightful waltzes, cleverly concealing the restrictions of the stage. Later they gave a selection of songs from "The Gondoliers." Again colour and movement enhanced the music.

Then it was the juniors' turn. "The An'mals," minute and masked, acted out a miscellany of animal songs, while "The Nurse" — a particularly attractive scene, evoked the long-gone world of A. A. Milne and childhood innocence, in "The King's Breakfast" and "Disobedience."

Predictably the sixth year sketch proved too elusive for the audience; but the doleful monologue, "The Battle of Hastings," restored calm and order, while the "Corps de Ballet" was instantly appealing, both for the delicacy of the ballerinas and for the brute vigour of the rugby players endeavouring to emulate them.

The second half of the programme began with "A Scottish Soldier," a rousing medley that maybe recognised the school's military traditions and sturdy Scottishness.

ANNIVERSARY REVUE

19-21 JUNE, 1986
ACADEMY HALL

125

The pipe band played the Scottish theme continued in a second monologue, "Scandal on the Sabbath," and in "Upstairs, Downstairs," which showed a Victorian Scots family contemplating sending two sons to "that new school at Crieff." This led on to a lively domestic soiree, when a family of retainers joined in rendering some of the favourite ballads of our forebears. The school today was brought irreverently to life in the vigorous number. A chorus of pupils sang wittily about the qualities of four of the schoolmistresses, who responded by dancing brazenly with four kenspeckle men about-Morrison's.

Such unbecoming conduct perhaps led the Rector, in "Reflections," to voice gloomy views on Life. Today, after the manner of the Rev. I. M. Jolly. A swift, well-staged finale saw the entire cast of each evening re-appearing to unstinted applause from satisfied patrons.

The naming of individual performers, when so many were involved, is clearly invidious. No one, however, would grudge mention of the hard-worked musical director, Alison Hunter, of Morag Halle, responsible for the colourful costumes, and Lois Thompson, creator of the striking animal-masks; and of Harry Ashmall, the producer, for his skilled marshalling of his resources and for his buoyant optimism. "There will be a revue"; there was indeed, and a good one, too!

Dear Mrs Hunter,

Comments received would indicate that the "ceilidh group" have a promising future! Their contribution to Saturday's Teddy Drive was undoubtedly much enjoyed by the audience and I'd be grateful if you would pass on the Committee's thanks to all who were involved, both playing and singing. We raised about £150.

There were also many positive comments about the youngsters' attitude and involvement - how helpful they were and how easily they related to all around them.

Many, many thanks on behalf of UNICEF.

Dear Mrs. Hunter,

once more a big thank you for yet another inspired & uplifting Carol service that runs along,
as those services should, thanks
to your handling of the choir.
It gives me that my daughters have never had the pleasure that singing can give to one but at least Rosalie was able to add something to the service.

all the best for the Festive season and again
many thanks for a super evening, which sadly will be my last.

Dear Mrs Hunter.

I write on behalf of the Trefoil, to thank you and your charming and talented young people for giving us such pleasure last night.

We appreciated it all the more as we know what a busy schedule you all have. The singing was beautiful and we were greatly taken with the 'band' with their spirited rendering of the dance music. They are certainly a credit to the School and to all your hard work.

Thank you all once again

Yours sincerely,
Gladys R. Phelps

BURNS' NIGHT AT MORRISON'S

Last Saturday night the Morrison's Academy pupils of held a very successful Supper in Academy Hall.

A company of about 140 enjoyed the traditional candelit hall sustaining eloquently proposed by Michael Kidd, of Ardreck School, his approach. He joined her in bidding his audience to "keep the tongue that's a' oor ain", and identified Burns' legacy of song as his greatest gift to Scotland. Mr. Donald Smith present with the lasses present witily replied. Mr. George Carson had further addressed the Haggis, and Ewan McGregor, Mr. Kidd and Donald Florence, (whose "Tam O' Shanter" was delivered with confidence) were given by the audience a full musical programme, featuring a range of soloists and choral groups in songs romantic, pastoral and patriotic. The well-received Ceilidh Band set feet a-tapping with two lively Charles Macfarlane, as did accordion in his solo spot.

"Willie Brew'd a Peck o' Maut," was sung with relish by three revelries "merry boys," and the Syne" and general satisfaction.

Miss K. Ennis Notes
from 1987 Interhouse
Music Competition

Graham's

- ✓ 1 Primary Choir - Yesterday - lovely fresh young voices - Very good diction - I would like to have heard more -
- ✓ 2 Charlotte - Somewhere Over the Rainbow - lovely clear voice - good diction - fairly expressive - (watch breathing)
- ✓ 3 Horn Solo - Ewan - V-Good playing - notoriously difficult instrument - articulation good - & crescendos well done - Very high standard of playing - well rehearsed.
- ✓ 4 Vocal Quartet - Cradle Song - Brahms. - What a lovely rich sound - well balanced - excellent diction a sensitive performance.
- ✓ 5 Celidh Band - Very rhythmic - the vg side drum helped to keep a steady beat - foot tapping stuff - a bit too short
- 6 Chamber Choir (a) LOVELY SINGING - beautiful descant - but at sometimes overshadowed the main melody, last chorus was very effective.
- (4) * (b) - also beautifully sung - and beautifully phrased. The two parts were very well balanced in those.
- ✓ 7 Arianne (Piano Solo) (a) - Very nice - musical performance - tendency to rush (b) Very secure rhythmic playing - altho it still rushes a little - Dynamics - F.G. Confident playing
- ✓ 8 Duet - Colin & Ewan - Brush up your Shakespeare - Very entertaining - also very good singing , & presentation - a great future for them
- ✓ 9 Solo Song - Rosemary Osborne - Peace - Schubert. - Very sensitive performance - lovely tone quality tho excellent diction, a tendency to too much vibrato - maturity will eradicate
- ✓ 10 Flute - Anna - Piccadilly - Satie - very good rhythmic performance - which managed to bring out the humour in Satie's music.
- ✓ 11 Vocal Solo - Josie - Were Walker in the Air - Very nice performance - lovely long phrases - (breathy tone) very effectively done diction - very good - most of the time
- ✓ 12 Piano Solo - (misread) Ballade per Adelaine - Very well played - - a very nice touch - a well thought out performance
- ✓ 13 Vocal Duet Sean & Rosemary - Princess Ida - good blend of voices - excellent diction - well acted too - well rehearsed.
- ✓ 14 Primaries Recorders - Argosy & Isabelle - Greensleeves - Well done - lovely clear tone - rhythmically secure.

Piano Solo - Claire - (a) Very much played - nicely phrased -
- could have more dynamics

① 15 Vocal Solo - Jill - Marriage of Figaro - (Very promising)
- a very good interpretation - excellent diction - remarkably mature singing - lovely tone quality

② 16 Clarinet Solo Romanza - Weber - What very good breath control & excellent dynamics in the very (technically) demanding piece - (a very promising player) so many cadenza like passages

17 Senor Chor
Lily the Pink - a most entertaining finale.
- + really good singing - helped of course by their inspired conductor.

Campbells Murray's

1. Singing - Junior Girls - Very nice singing - a bit more volume needed - Nice tone quality.
2. Vocal Solo - Robert Murray - from the Carter Song - lovely clear voice - excellent diction - good rhythmic sense.
3. Flute Duet - E. Mayall or M. McKay - nice balance between the 2 parts - good ensemble - tone a bit breathy.
4. Vocal Solo - with Guitar - very good singing - lovely tone quality & good subdued but competent accompaniment - (it would be nice to hear him playing & singing a cheerful song)
- (1) * Piano Duet - very attractive waltz tune - (we lost seconds for a while) - but it was nicely played.
6. Vocal Solo Wee Willie Winkie Premiere?
A very sweet voice - & nice interpretation - good diction.
- (2) Flute & Clarinet Duet - Very competent players - who took time to tune properly - Good balance & blend.
8. Senior Boys Sergeant's Song (Pirates of Penzance) - What a pleasure it is to hear young men's voices - & singing very well too - good diction - nice tone quality - & good acting.
9. Violin & D/Bass. - a very unusual choice for a duet - good solid bass helped violin keep up the solo which has a difficult rhythm.
10. Vocal Solo - The Rowan Tree - a lovely song - well sung.
- there could be some variation or dynamics e.g. last verse -
- there arose no father prayer etc. could be very effectively sung softly & a little slower.
11. Flute Solo Rosemary Elder - Garotte very competent playing lower register could be stronger.
12. Vocal Solo Anna MacDonald - Sweet Polly Oliver - arr. by Breton? - very difficult setting - very well sung - very expressive.

13 Trumpet Solo Alabama Cakewalk - George Redsell.

(Primary) Good strong tone - good breathing - very nicely played.

14 Vocal Duet Karen & James (Ruddigore) very entertaining performance - good diction & acting - voices blend well.

15 Tenor Horn Solo - Joanne Grant. Habenera & Ragtime.

- lovely sound tone - good expression

Ragtime - - Very good playing - a difficult piece chromatically.

16 Vocal Solo - Lesley Ramsey - John Peel. - very sweet voice - good diction - well enunciation

17 Piano Solo - A very good performance - technically secure -
- good dynamics - (inclined to rush) - a very competent pianist

18 Mixed Choir - Food Glorious Food:

- This blend of voices produces a lovely sound - Keep on singing together.

Campbell House

1. Senior Ensemble - Good Diction - good ensemble most of the time - weak in places. Dynamics good - Faces could show more expression
2. Piano - Rachel - very good - rhythmic urge - a few little disasters - here and there - could have more dynamics.
3. Flute Rondo - Purcell (Senior) - very nice tone beautifully phrased.
4. Marcia - Recit - declaimed well - lovely warm tone, & musical phrasing - Middle section of Aria - was a lovely contrast - a beautiful performance.
① *
5. Neil Burns - Trumpet - A very difficult piece - well played - with excellent rhythm.
6. Clarinet Duet - Minuet - well blended + balanced - rich tone from both players.
7. Chic MacFarlane - Accordion - Marvellous rhythm - foot-tapping great finger dexterity, & variety in his playing. I would like to have heard some really soft playing - good performance.
8. Senior Group - I'd do Anything - nice performance.
- Girls - very enticing - boys - could show more enthusiasm - they did at the end!
⑨
9. Flute Trio - First flute excellent - good ensemble on the whole - Flutes 2 & 3 - lovely warm tone - could give more support
10. Alex Kershaw - Mandolin - really delightful - I occasionally lost the thread of the tune - but very proficient.
11. Wilma Miller - Merry Widow - Viola - very nice warm tone - good ^{facial} expression - (rather far back in throat). Could she be becoming a mezzo or Alto. Last note beautifully sustained
12. Fiona - Recorder - This is quite a difficult piece - it was well played with a nice sense of phrasing - more dynamics please.
⑩
13. Lucy Bottom - Flute - good rhythmic playing - nice round tone - & good phrasings
14. Laura - Hushwaggle (a) The Day Dawns - a nice interpretation of a very descriptive piece - good steady bowing. Intonation ?
⑪*
- (b) Bonnie D'Avergne - Very rhythmic - a very competent cellist.

15. Haxdair - Singers - Primary 7. Delightful singing -
- diction good in first verse, but a bit vague after that.
16. Flute & Clarinet - Barcarolle in Canon - two very good instrumentalists - the good ensemble players - clarinet perhaps a shade too heavy - but very well played - lovely ending.
- 17
- 18 Knox Choir - Consider Yourself a smashing performance.
- Very good clear words - the actors were well done & synchronised - and Great Fun.

Drummonds.

Rhythmic

1. Senior Choir - The Bare Necessities - Very nice sound - good diction - good & expressive faces - (Very hard to sing unaccompanied)
2. Guitars - Heather & Inhari - no title - (Tuning is all important) - A nice short piece - F.G. - Good attempt.
3. Vocal Duet - Elizabeth & Katherine - All in the April Economy - lovely tone from both voices - nicely balanced - It could have more expression - dynamics in Voices - & facial expression - Interpret the words
4. Louise & Kaera - Violin & Cello.
- Take more time over tuning - 2 very competent players. ^{more} Vibrato will help - Intonation a bit suspect - but a good endevor
5. Primary Choir - What lovely singing - very good diction - it could have more expression - it is a SAD story!
6. Piano - Lorraine - Memory. - Very well played - The Melody was brought out well. & the playing was sensitive - as the song is!
7. Vocal Trio - Streets of London - Good strong singing - excellent diction, a little ^{more} harmony would have been nice. A sensitive interpretation of a sad story - Watch rhythm of sun don't shine - Syncopation must always be musical.
- * 8. Flute Solo - Joanne - a very promising flautist - good strong tone - good breathing - could have more dynamics - a trifle sharp here & there
9. Junior Choir - When I'm 64! - Nice sound - words good. - but faces need more expression - & more volume.
10. Recorder Duet - (Rosamunde). Kaera & Lava, This sounds very nice on Descant & Treble - good ensemble playing
11. Vocal - Jeanine & Emma - Sunrise - Sunset - Very sweet singing - good expression - dynamics & diction - A lovely sad performance
12. Flute - Chariots of Fire Andrew - This flute sounds good played by a flute - it would have been better with some accompaniment - Well played - Strong L - sense of loneliness.
13. Vocal Solo - Don't Cry for Me - Jeanine - again this needs an accompaniment but very well sung - nice clear voice. silvery tone. Diction good.
- * ? Expression - facial & otherwise - good.

14. Cello Kaera - Evening Song. lovely rich tone - which is helped by use of vibrato - nicely phrased - but could have more Dynamics - Intonation is a little suspect. - This has a lovely melodic line - try singing it!
15. Piano Song Samantha - Over the mountains ^{over the mountains} lovely singing. A strong voice still developing - . Very expressive - excellent diction - good contrast (Dynamics) too.
16. Mixed Chor Thank You for the music
- Trio of Soloists - Good presentation. Chorus ^{Excellent Diction} & good too. choice of music - How about some harmony -

CASTLE HILDEBRAND

COURTIERS & SOLDIERS of King Hildebrand
Anxiously await the arrival of Princess Ida, daughter of King Gana.
Ida has been wedded in infancy to King Hildebrand's son, Hilarion and now she is twenty-one. The marriage contract must be fulfilled.
News is brought that King Gana has been sighted.

First to arrive are his three baronial sons, we are warriors three...
Then the ink tempered King Gana arrives and within a few minutes has insulted all, finishing with the news that he has not brought Princess Ida, implying she is too good for such lowly people.

King Hildebrand is furious.

Gana then explains the truth about Ida's whereabouts

she has left home to set up a ladies university in Castle Admont

and has abjured everything naked.

Gana suggests that Hilarion

should go to Princess Ida

and try a little polite persuasion

a little wooing.

Hildebrand decides to keep

Gana hostage with his three sons until Hilarion's return, which if unsuccessful, he will probably hang Gana & sons post mortem.

Hilarion, Cyril, Thorian

naked, plans for the wooing of Ida expressive glances - - - followed by a rousing chorus

AND THE LADIES ENTER AND SET ABOUT THEIR EARLY MORNING EXERCISE.
LADY PSYCHE ENTERS AND THE GIRLS
ASK QUESTIONS ON AUTHORS, BOOKS TO
REPO, HEADING TO THE FINAL QUESTION
WHAT'S THE THING THAT'S KNOWN AS MAN?
THE ANSWER IS GIVEN.

A RETURN TO EXERCISE ENDS THE SCENE.
LADY BRANCHE, SECOND IN COMMAND
ENTERS AND READS OUT THE ORDERS FOR THE DAY.

THIS LEADS TO ARRIVAL OF PRINCESS IDA.
DURING THE CHORUS "MIGHTY MAIDEN".

PRINCESS IDA SINGS TO MINERVA
FOR HELP & GUIDANCE.

SHE ASKS WHO LECTURES IN THE HALL
OF ARTS TODAY?

LADY BRANCHE STEPS FORWARD AND
TELLS ALL ASSEMBLED THAT HER SUBJECT WILL BE ABSTRACT PHILOSOPHY.
DURING THIS DIALOGUE THE TEAHOUSE

BETWEEN IDA & BRANCHE CAN BE SEEN.

↑ THE GIRLS ARE LED OFF BY IDA LEAVING
↑ BRANCHE TO SING THE ARIA "COME MIGHTY MUSE".

AKHIS QUIET, ENTER HILARION, CYRIL & FLORIAN
THEY CLIMB INTO THE UNIVERSITY AND FIND THEIR WAY TO
THE GIRLS ROOMS. ROBES AND HATS ARE FOUND AND THEY DISGUISE THEMSELVES DURING THE TRIO "I AM A MAIDEN".

THE PRINCESS RETURNS, FOLLOWED BY THE GIRLS.
THINKING THE THREE NEW LADIES, SHE ASKS WHAT THEY WANT. THEY EXPLAIN, THEY WISH TO JOIN THE UNIVERSITY. AFTER INTERROGATION SHE KNOWS
THEY TO JOIN.

THE LAST GIRL TO ARRIVE BACK IS PSYCHE, FLORIAN'S
SISTER WHO ON REALISING THEIR IDENTITY AGREES TO FALL IN WITH THE PLOT. SHE WARNS IF THEY ARE CAUGHT, DEATH IS THE PENALTY. AND THE GIRLS
HAVE BEEN TAUGHT TO RENOUNCE MANKIND.
SHE EXPLAINS ALL IN A SONG
"THE APE AND THE LADY".

MELISSA, LADY BRANCHE DAUGHTER ENTERS
AND ALSO JOINS INTO THE PLOT of DECEIT
As THEY EXIT LADY BRANCHE ENTERS AND CALLS TO MELISSA AND ASKS for AN EXPLANATION of
THE GOINGS ON . THIS MELISSA DOES . AT THE SAME TIME LEADING HER MOTHER INTO THE DECEIT

THE BREAKFAST BELL IS HEARD AND ALL
GATHER FOR THE MEAL , PRINCESS IDA QUESTIONS
HEAD TABLE .
DURING BREAKFAST PRINCESS IDA QUESTIONS
THE DISGUISED HILARION & CYRIL ABOUT THE COURT of HIDEBRAND .

THIS LEADS TO THE KISSING SONG .
WHICH BROWS THE GAFF ON THE WHOLE
CHARADE .

IDIA , REALISING THEY ARE MEN , DRIVES
HER LADIES OUT THRU THE GATES AND MAKES OFF
THE DRAW BRIDGE INTO THE MOAT . AFTER MUCH
PANICK SHE IS SAVED from A WATERY GRAVE
BY PRINCE HILARION , MUCH TO THE DISGUST of BRANCHE .

PRINCESS IDA INSTEAD of THANKS ,
HAS THE THREE HEROES THROWN INTO CHAINS .
THEY ARE TAKEN TO PRISON .
MELISSA RUSHES TO TELL IDA THAT SOLDIERS ARE BREAKING INTO THE CASTLE , LED BY KING HIDEBRAND .

SHE TRIES TO DEFY THE KING , BUT
HE WARNS HER THAT SHE MUST RELEASE
HILARION AND BE HIS BRIDE . If NOT , HE WILL PUT HER FATHER KING GANA AND HER
THREE BROTHERS TO DEATH .
THEY BOTH SING A CHORUS of DEFIANCE .

Act III

CASTLE ADAMANT

THE LADIES ENTER IN MILITARY fashion CARRYING BATTLE AXES SINGING, "DEATH TO THE INVADER", BUT THEIR COURAGE IS VERY THIN.

ENTER PRINCESS TIDA READY FOR BATTLE.

SHE ENQUIRIES OF HER TROOPS WHETHER OR NOT THEY ARE READY FOR THE fray.
THE ANSWER IS DEFINITELY IN THE NEGATIVE.
SHE CALLS THEM ALL COWARDS AND DISMISSES THEM.
Aria "I Built Upon A Rock."

CHHOE RETURNS TO TELL TIDA THAT HER
FATHER & BROTHERS Arac, Quron & Scyntius
ARE AT THE GATE AND WISH TO SPEAK TO HER.

King Qana enters and explains that
HE HAS BEEN SENT BY KING HILDEBRAND TO SAY THAT HE HAS NO WISH TO WAR ON WOMEN.

GAMA OFFERS HER BROTHERS
To fight against Hildebrand's sons and on the issue
LET HER HAND DEPEND.
SHE AGREES.

ENTER EVERYONE FOR
THE FIGHT.

QANA'S SONS
Arac, Quron & Scyntius
FEEL THE ARMOUR TO
HOT & HEAVY TO FIGHT IN
AND DURING THE FIGHT
THEY REMOVE ALL.

THEY FIGHT.

Dear Mr. Ashmall,

Young Musicians' Lunchtime Concert

The 1987 Perth Festival of the Arts has drawn to a close, and once again it is my pleasure, on behalf of the committee, to thank the staff and pupils concerned for invading our lunch hours with delightful musical talent.

As I'm sure you are aware, these concerts have become an integral part of the Festival, and as such, continue to be tremendously popular and well supported. The audience never fails to be amazed at the high professional standard attained.

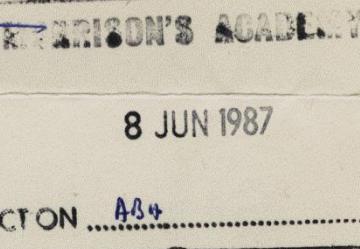

I will be writing again in the autumn regarding next years Festival.

Please let me know if there are any travel expenses you would wish us to meet.

Many thanks again.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs. Audrey Cooper

Dear Mr Ashmall,

On behalf of the Festival Committee I would like to thank you for supporting the Festival by allowing your pupils to participate in the Wednesday morning concert, for allowing so many to attend some of the concerts and for the girls who sold programmes.

The Festival was very successful, due in no small measure to the co-operation of the Schools, including Morrison's.

I shall be grateful if you will pass the enclosed letters to the pupils who took part in the Festival.

Thank you again,

Yours sincerely,

Alison,

from a mere choir member - well done and thank you for help, guidance but also a great deal of enjoyment!

I haven't sung "properly" since I was at school ... nor yesterday ... and all the memories of the hard work, but also rewards, came back.

William Stephen Coleman was born in Horsham, Surrey. The son of a doctor, he began to study medicine, but his keen interest in natural history led him to painting and illustrating. Between 1859 and 1869 he specialized in illustrating natural history books, and also produced drawings for The Illustrated London News and other magazines.

In the late 1860s he began to paint on porcelain, first for the Copeland factory then, from 1869, for Minton, where he pioneered a new style of pottery decoration using brilliantly coloured enamel paints and a freedom of design, inspired by Japanese art. His characteristic subjects treated in this way were flowers and other natural forms, nude children and cherubs.

In 1871 he was appointed Director of Minton Art Pottery Studio in Kensington, but resigned in 1873 and returned to painting landscape and genre scenes in oil and watercolour.
